Let me give you a few tips for prep work to make things go smoothly. In order to get very clear stamping on the muslin bag, you'll need a hard surface to stamp on and a spongy surface as well. Contradictory, I know. You'll want your foam Stampin' mat on the bottom, then you'll want to cut a piece of chipboard or cardboard backing to fit inside the bag (see it sticking out). I also used push pins to tack down the bag so it was taut and did not move while I was stamping.

While you are setting up, grab a small baby washcloth or old tshirt scrap and dampen it. You will use it to carefully wipe any ink residue from the border of the stamps.

Stamps: Picture Perfect

Ink used: Mint Macaron, Watermelon Wonder, Cucumber Crush, Garden Green

Directions

1. Set up and prep your space.
2. Stamp from lightest to darkest, following the numbers on the clear sheet that comes with the stamp set. Mint Macaron (body), Watermelon Wonder (chest), Cucumber Crush, and finally Garden Green. Make sure to wipe any excess ink from the stamp border or inside parts. Stamp firmly on the bag, making sure the birds are lined up and facing the same direction.
3. Add the sentiment You are Made of Wonderful. (In Watermelon Wonder ink). You can now loosen the bag from the foam mat and remove the cardboard.
4. Die cut two heart with treat bag framelits, Watermelon and Gold.
5. Cut Mint Macaron twine to wrap around the bag 4 times and tie in a bow.
6. Attach the heart with Gold Cording. I poked the hole with the push pins used to hold down the bag.
7. Gift it away to someone special!
